sures like the sanction of reconstruction, revival or rehabilitation packages, change in management, amalgamation, and the sale or lease of assets are taken depending on the circumstances in each case, provided viability is subsequently likely. In respect of non-viable units, the Board for Industrial and Financial Reconstruction (BIFR) is empowered to order the winding up of the unit through the High Court concerned. The liquidator so appointed by the Court distributes the proceeds realised from out of the sale of assets of the units in accordance with the law. IDBI also attempts to negotiate with the units and their promoters for one time settlements. Where units are nationalised, IDBI (like other financial institutions) is entitled to receive 25 per cent of its pre-takeover dues within 3 months and the balance 75 per cent over 7 years with interest at 2 per cent above the bank rate.
